VOLUME IX INDEX

No. 1, SPRING 1996 1-101
No. 2, SUMMER 1996 102-222
No. 3, FALL 1996 223-342
No. 4, WINTER 1996 343-468

A

A la Sombra del Roble: La Empresa Privada Familiar y su Continuidad (In the Shadow of the Oak: The Privately Held Family Business and Its Continuity), reviewed, 216–218

Adams, J. S., "Ethics in Family and Non-Family-Owned Firms: An Exploratory Study," 157–170

Addiction: behaviors characteristic of, 350-355; chronic stess and, 353; codependents and, 352–353; control issues and, 352; defensive thinking and, 351–352; denial and, 351; differentiation and, 350; ethical/spiritual deterioration and, 353; family business high and, 348–349; frozen feelings and, 354; grandiosity and, 353; individuation/ego development and, 361–362; overly cohesive families and, 350; perfectionism/obsessiveness and, 352; phases of, 354; progressive dependency/tolerance and, 351; recovery phases of, 365; self-centeredness and, 352; substance abuse and, 349. See also Addictive organizations; Substance abuse

Addictive organizations, 348–354, 360–367. See also Unhealthy family business

Adolescent career development, family business and (study): closed decision-making approach and, 382; data analysis/results, 374–380; descriptive characteristics, 374–375; discussion, 380–383; gender considerations, 375; group comparison, 375–376; hypothesis development, 370–371; implications, 383–384; instruments, 373; limitations, 373–374; moderating effects, 376–379; parental overinvolvement and, 381–384; participants, 372; research methods, 372–374; vocational identity and, 371, 380, 383

Adolescents: career development of (study), 369–384; enmeshed family and, 370–371; family firm pressures on, 369–370; family values and, 370; identity formation of, 369. See also Adolescent career development, family business and (study)

Adult development: black male entrepreneurs and, 445–446; life-cycle periods in, 444–445

African Americans, male entrepreneurs, 444–446

Annotated Bibliography: "Do Estate and Gift Taxes Have Economic Consequences?" 321–328

Anthropology: family firm research and, 16, 18–19, 25; interactionist perspective and, 159; succession practices and, 16-17, 24–26

Apolinsky, H. I., "The Impact on Small Business and Family Business of Changing the Estate Tax," 227–232

Aronoff, C. E., Family Business Sourcebook II: A Guide for Families Who Own Businesses and the Professionals Who Serve Them, reviewed, 212–215; review by, 447-449

Articles: "Attributions for Family Business Failure: The Heir's Perspective," 171–184; "Boards of Directors in Italian Family Business," 403–421; "Chiefdoms and Family Firm Regimes: Variations on the Same Anthropological Theme," 15–27; "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294; "The Effect of Estate Taxes on Family Business: Survey Results," 303–314; "Effects of Family-Business Membership and Psychological Separation on the Career Development of Late Adolescents," 369–386; "The Estate Tax Drag on Family Businesses," 233–252; "Estate Taxes and Asset Accumulation," 253–268; "Estate Taxes and the Investment Decision in Closely Held Firms," 315–320; "Ethics in Family and Non-Family-Owned Firms: An Exploratory Study," 157–170; "Family Enterprise in the UK—A Special Sector?" 139–155; "Federal Estate and Gift Taxes: Are They Worth the Cost?" 295–302; "Federal Transfer Taxation: The Effect on

Articles (continued)
Saving, Capital, Accumulation, and Economic Dissipation," 269–283; "Finance in Family Business," 387–401; "The Impact on Small Business and Family Business of Changing the Estate Tax," 227–232; "Important Factors in Family Business Internationalization," 45–59; "Influences of Work-Family Conflict on Job Satisfaction, Life Satisfaction and Quitting Intentions Among Business Owners: The Case of Family-Operated Businesses," 61–74; "Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index," 125–137; "Myths and Realities: Family Businesses' Contribution to the US Economy," 107–123; "Research Note: Comparison of Small Family Businesses with Family Participation versus Small Businesses Without Family Participation: An Investigation of Differences in Goals, Attitudes, and Family/Business Conflict," 423–437; "Research Note: Effective Successors in Family-Owned Businesses: Significant Elements," 185–197; "Research Note: Succession Management in Family Firms in the North East of England," 75–85; "The Status of Planning in Smaller Family-Owned Businesses," 29–43; "TQM Adoption Practices in the Family-Owned Business," 5–14; "When the Family Business Is a Sickness," 347–368

Asset management strategies: asset accumulation and, 167; restructuring, 17–18, 23–24; wealth payment, 18, 24

Astrachan, J. H., "The Effect of Estate Taxes on Family Business: Survey Results," 303–314; Family Business Sourcebook II: A Guide for Families Who Own Businesses and the Professionals Who Serve Them, reviewed, 212–215; "Myths and Realities: Family Businesses' Contribution to the US Economy," 107–123

"Attributions for Family Business Failure: The Heir's Perspective," 171–184

B

Bailey, B. B., review by, 212–215

Bivalent attributes, 201–207

"Bivalent Attributes of the Family Firm," 199–208

Black Male Entrepreneurs and Adult Development, reviewed, 444–446

Blackman, I., Tax Secrets of the Wealthy: A New System to Pass All Your Wealth—Intact and Tax Free—to Your Family, reviewed, 332–337

Blakely, E. B., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294

Boards of directors: conflict resolution and, 404; family and, 404; Latin American, 217; research on, 404–405; role of, 404; Spanish family firm, 405–406, 411–413; succession and, 404; U.S. family firm, 413; work-family conflict and, 404. See also Boards of directors, Italian family businesses and (study)

Boards of directors, Italian family businesses and (study): board-family-firm relationship and, 416–417, 420; board function and, 411–412, 418; board presence and, 408–409, 417–418; board structure and, 409–411, 418; board tasks and, 412–414; board value/power and, 414–415; company characteristics and, 406–409; conclusions, 417–419; further research and, 419; implications, 419–420; method, 405–406; positive aspects and, 417–418; problematic aspects and, 418; results, 406–417; Spanish family firms and, 405–408, 410–413; U.S. family firms and, 413

"Boards of Directors in Italian Family Business," 403–421

Boles, J. S., "Influences of Work-Family Conflict on Job Satisfaction, Life Satisfaction and Quitting Intentions Among Business Owners: The Case of Family-Operated Businesses," 61–74

Book Reviews: A la Sombra del Roble: La Empresa Privada Familiar y su Continuidad (In the Shadow of the Oak: The Privately Held Family Business and Its Continuity), 216–218; Black Male Entrepreneurs and Adult Development, 444–446; Family Business Sourcebook II: A Guide for Families Who Own Businesses and the Professionals Who Serve Them, 212–215; Generation to Generation: Life

Cycles of the Family Business, 447-449; Hidden Champions: Lessons from 500 of the World's Best Unknown Companies, 439-443; Kikkoman: Company, Clan and Community, 87–92; King Lear, 93–97; Marketing to Family Businesses, 209–211; Passing the Torch: Succession, Retirement, and Estate Planning in Family-Owned Businesses, Second Edition, 329–331; Tax Secrets of the Wealthy: A New System to Pass All Your Wealth—Intact and Tax Free—to Your Family, 332–337; A Thousand Acres, 93–97
Brown, B. M., review by, 216–218
Business ethics. See Ethics

C

Career development. See Adolescent career development, family business and (study)
Carsrud, A. L., "Chiefdoms and Family Firm Regimes: Variations on the Same Anthropological Theme," 15–27
Champion firms: competitive nature of, 440; criteria of, 439; customer-driven basis of, 440; hidden, 439–440; innovation and, 440–441; international focus of, 440; lessons from, 442–443; size and, 441; teamwork and, 441; values of, 441–442
Chang, C., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294
Chaos theory, 17
Chapman, K., "Estate Taxes and Asset Accumulation," 253–268
Charitable giving, 321–322, 324–325, 328, 332
Chief executive officers (CEOs): effectiveness of successor (study), 185-195; succession management in UK SMFEs (study), 76–85; women, 185. See also Entrepreneurs; Owners, family business
Chiefdoms: family firms and, 15–16, 19; succession strategies and, 17–18
"Chiefdoms and Family Firm Regimes: Variations on the Same Anthropological Theme," 15–27
Chile, estate tax law in, 291–292
Classics: "Bivalent Attributes of the Family Firm," 199–208
Closely held businesses: funding estate tax liability in, 317–319; investment decision model of, 316; transfer taxation and, 281–282
Codependents: in addictive firm, 352–353; defined, 351; workaholism and, 353–354
Cohn, M., Passing the Torch: Succession, Retirement, and Estate Planning in Family-Owned Businesses, Second Edition, reviewed, 329–331
Combat, 21–22
"Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies, A," 285–294
Competence, contender, 20
Contender elimination strategies: combat and, 21–22; competence and, 20; legitimacy and, 20–21; ostracism and, 22. See also Succession strategies; Successors
Continuity, family firm: CEO role in (study), 185–195; estate tax and, 299–300; founder role in, 185; sibling relationships and, 187; succession planning and, 172; successor-father relationship and, 187; younger generation and, 214. See also Failure, family business
Corbetta, G., "Boards of Directors in Italian Family Business," 403–421
Crain's Chicago Stock Index, 125, 129, 132–133

D

Davis, J. A., "Bivalent Attributes of the Family Firm," 199–208; "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294; Generation to Generation: Life Cycles of the Family Business, reviewed, 447-449
Deane, R., "TQM Adoption Practices in the Family-Owned Business," 5–14
Differentiation, 350, 355–356, 358, 360. See also Individuation
Division of labor, 23
"Do Estate and Gift Taxes Have Economic Consequences?" 321–328
Dow Jones Industrial Average, 125, 129

Dow Jones World Stock Index, 128
Dunn, B., "Family Enterprise in the UK—A Special Sector?" 139–155; review by, 87–92
Dynamism, 17
Dysfunctional family firms. See Unhealthy family business

E

Eckrich, C. J., "Effects of Family-Business Membership and Psychological Separation on the Career Development of Late Adolescents," 369–386
Economics: family firms and, 114–117, 131–132; GDP and, 114–115, 121–132; Scottish SMFEs and 144–145, 148–149
"Effect of Estate Taxes on Family Business: Survey Results, The," 303–314
Effectiveness: business attractiveness and, 193; competition and, 191–192; early successor introduction and, 194–195; family business organization and, 190–191; family dynamics and succession, 192; family firm successor (study), 185–195; measures of successor, 186; of succession, 187–188
"Effects of Family-Business Membership and Psychological Separation on the Career Development of Late Adolescents," 369–386
Ego development, 360–362. See also Individuation
Ellington, N., "TQM Adoption Practices in the Family-Owned Business," 5–14
English family firms, succession management in (study): company age and, 78; findings, 76–80; methodology, 76; questionnaire, 82–85; succession procedures and, 79; successor experience/training and, 79–80. See also United Kingdom
Entrepreneurs: black male, 444–446; estate taxation and, 236, 243–245, 252; individuation in families of, 358–360; inheritance and, 323; survival of, 323. See also Chief executive officers (CEOs); Owners, family business
Entrepreneurship: aptitude for, 281; estate taxation and, 236, 243–245, 252, 313; family business vs., 425; transfer taxation and, 281
Epps, L. J., review by, 444–446
Equally weighted index, 129
"Estate Tax Drag on Family Businesses, The," 233–252
"Estate Taxes and Asset Accumulation," 253–268
"Estate Taxes and the Investment Decision in Closely Held Firms," 315–320
Estate planning: business continuity and, 172-173; defined, 172; family business failure and (study), 172–183; federal tax law and, 172–173, 182; need for, 183; tax polity and, 182
Estate tax: annotated bibliography on, 321–328; asset liquidity and, 267, 315, 319–320; asset/capital accumulation and, 265–267, 198; burden of, 239–240, 288, 295–296; capital accumulation and, 327; changes in, 227–228; charitable contributions and, 321–322, 324–325, 328, 332; design of, 237–238; disincentive effect of, 308–311, 313, 319; economic impact of, 279–282, 296–297, 303–304, 313, 321–328; entrepreneurs and, 323; entrepreneurship and, 236, 243–245, 252, 323; estate composition and, 240–243; estate planning and, 172–173, 182; expatriation and, 230; family business behavior and (study), 303–314; family business failure and, 228–229, 296, 199–300; free enterprise and, 229; funding of, 317–318; GDP/GNP and, 229–230, 256; history of, 234–237, 324; impact on family firm of, 298–300; impact on small business of, 227-231; jobs and, 296–297; labor disincentive of, 325; labor-force behavior and, 323; litigation and, 229–230; minimizing, 254, 299; motivations for, 229, 233, 253, 288; negatives of, 301, 304; planning expenditures, 231; private property and, 234; rates, 257–265; revenues and, 254–265, 270, 296, 327–328; wealth accumulation model and, 245-252, 325–326; wealth transfer and, 327; wealth transfer strategies and, 332–337. See also Estate taxes, family business behavior and (study); Transfer taxation
Estate tax law: Chilean, 291–292; cross-country comparison of, 285–294; cross-cultural commonalities of, 286; estate planning and, 172–173, 182; Finnish, 289–291; lifetime credit and, 289; ownership transfer and, 285, 288–289; reform of, 289; state, 286, 288; Taiwanese, 292–293; U.S., 286–289

Estate taxes, family business behavior and (study): disincentive effect of, 308–311, 313; employment and, 309–310; expenses of, 311, 313; firm survival and, 310; further research, 313; growth and, 308–309; insurance expenditures and, 311–313; investment decisions and, 308, 315; job loss and, 310–311; legal expenditures and, 312–313; methodology, 304–305; results/discussion, 305–313
Ethical behavior: business goals and, 159, 168; family firms and, 160–161; individual factors in, 158; interactionist perspective on, 158–159; moral psychology and, 158; moral reasoning and, 158; norms of conformity and, 159; organizational context and, 158–160; organizational culture/climate and, 159–160, 167–168; organizational formalization and, 159, 166; organizational size and, 159; reward/punishment and, 159; role conflict and, 158
Ethics: defined, 158; emphasis on, 157; research on, 157–160. See also Ethics, family firm (study)
Ethics, family firm (study): competing beliefs about, 160–161; discussion, 166–168; measures, 163–164; methods, 162–164; non-family-firm ethics vs., 165–168; results, 164–166; sample, 162–163
"Ethics in Family and Non-Family-Owned Firms: An Exploratory Study," 157–170
Eyzaguirre G., J. M., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294

F

Failure, family business: estate planning and, 172–173; estate tax and, 228–229, 296; frequency of, 171–172, 185, 228; success and, 356; succession planning and, 172; types of, 356–357; value-laden assumptions and, 347–348. See also Continuity, family firm; Family business failure, heirs' attributions for (study)
Family: boards of directors and, 404; common history of, 203–204; company meaning and, 205–206; denial in, 351; emotional involvement/confusion in, 204; enmeshed, 370; goals of, 425; mutual awareness/privacy of, 205; private family language in, 204–205; shared identity in, 202–203; simultaneous roles and, 201–202. See also Family dynamics
Family business: as American dream, 329; bulls' eye configuration of, 109–110; cousins' consortiums in, 448; economic impact of, 114–117, 131–132, 199; family-business goal conflict and, 424–425; family-involvement categories of, 109; GDP/GNP and, 114–115, 131–132, 199; global/ethnicity issues in, 214; as illness, 348; individuation and, 355; life cycle of, 447–449; national employment and, 115, 199; ownership evolution of, 448–449; substance abuse and, 349; success and, 356–357; three-dimensional developmental model of, 447–448. See also Adolescent career development, family business and (study); Failure, family business; Family business definitions; Family business failure, heirs' attributions for (study); Family business goals/attitudes, work-family conflict and (study); Family business statistics; Family businesses (FBs); Family firms; Family-owned firms; Finance, family business (study); Success, family business; Unhealthy family business
Family-business definitions: criteria for, 108; degree of family involvement and, 109–110; family-business universe and, 110; high family involvement, 113–114; low family involvement, 113; public company, 111
Family-business failure, heirs' attributions for (study): business success and, 181; definitional issues, 174; family-business owners' plan and, 176–177, 180; heirs' business profile, 175; implications, 182–183; inadequate estate planning and, 177–181; measures, 174; method, 173–174; results/discussion,

Family-business failure (continued)
176–182; sample profile, 175–176; succession/estate planning and, 172–173, 176; unemployment and, 181–182. See also Failure, family-business
Family Business Forum (Kennesaw State College), 214
Family-business goals/attitudes, work-family conflict and (study): business goals/attitudes and, 425–426; conceptual framework/hypotheses, 424–426; findings/analysis, 430–431; future research and, 436; limitations, 435; research on, 423–424; research methods, 426–430; sample characteristics, 427–430; summary, 435; work-family conflict management, 426, 434–435; work-family conflict measures and, 431–434
Family Business Index, 142–143
Family-business research. See Research
Family Business Sourcebook II: A Guide for Families Who Own Businesses and the Professionals Who Serve Them, reviewed, 212–215
Family-business statistics: categories of, 107; economic import of, 107, 117; Educated Estimates, 107–108; extrapolation-based, 108; Family Business Facts, 111; framework for assessing, 110; GDP and, 114–115, 131–132; lack of quantitative, 108; on net job creation, 115–117; on privately-held companies, 111–113; on public companies, 110–111; research-based, 108; Street Lore, 107, 110, 113–115, 117; on work force, 115
Family-business universe, 109–110
Family businesses (FBs): changing environment of, 194; competitive environment of, 187, 191–192; criteria for, 108; defined, 199; economic statistics on, 107–108, 110, 114–117; export activity of, 45; family relationships and, 187, 192; internationalization of (study), 45–58; NFBs vs., 45–46, 141–144, 153; organization of, 187, 190–191; prevalence of, 199; privately-held, 111–113; public, 111, 125; Shakespearian plays and, 93–95; systems theory and, 153–154; women in, 213–214. See also Champion firms; English family firms, succession management in (study); Family firms; Family-owned businesses; German family firms; Italian family businesses; Owners, family business; Scottish family enterprises; Spanish family businesses, internationalization (study)
Family-controlled public firms: organizational structure of, 125, 127; performance of, 127, 131; stock performance of, 125–127
Family dynamics: family-business future and, 187; family firm continuity and, 187–188; family firms and, 5–6, 19, 200–206; Scottish family enterprises and, 147; as Shakespearean tragedy, 93–97; sibling relationships and, 187; succession effectiveness and, 192; succession planning and, 330. See also Family; Work-family conflict (WFC)
"Family Enterprise in the UK—A Special Sector?" 139–155
Family Firm Institute, 96, 363
Family firms: anthroplogical perspective on, 16; bivalent attributes of, 201–207; common family history of, 203–204; as equally ethical, 160; ethics of, 161, 160–161; family dynamics and, 5–6, 19, 200–206; family emotional involvement/confusion in, 204; family mutual awareness/privacy in, 205; family-ownership-management overlap in, 200–201; family private language in, 204–205; family-shared identity in, 202; meaning of, 205–206; organizational culture of, 160; ownership/control in, 19; pre-industrial chiefdoms and, 15–16, 19; simultaneous family roles in, 201–202; social context and, 19; wealth and, 19. See also English family firms, succession management in (study); Ethics, family firm (study); Family business; Family businesses (FBs); Family-controlled public firms; Family-owned firms; Spanish family firms; UK family firms
Family-owned-business planning (study): consultants and, 40; control, 39; financial analyses, 37–39; growth and, 34–35; involvement and, 32; mathematical/computer models and, 40–41; objectives, 33–34; premises, 34; techniques, 33–39; tools, 40
Family-owned firms: decision making in, 5–6, 13; family dynamics in, 5–6; flexible organization of, 12–13; management of, 6, 11; managerial formality/skills, 6, 11–13; performance of, 5–6, 10–11; planning in smaller (study), 31–42; short-term focus of, 5–6, 11; status quo attitude of, 6, 11; TQM practices in (study), 5–13; work-family conflict and (study), 62–72. See also Family businesses (FBs); Family-controlled public firms; Family firms; Family-owned business planning (study)

Federal Estate and Gift Tax (FEGT), 327–328
"Federal Estate and Gift Taxes: Are They Worth the Cost?" 295–302
"Federal Transfer Taxation: The Effect on Saving, Capital, Accumulation, and Economic Dissipation," 269–283
File, K. M., "Attributions for Family Business Failure: The Heir's Perspective," 171–184; Marketing to Family Businesses, reviewed, 209–211
Finance, family-business (study): analysis/results, 391; background, 387–388; data, 388–391; debt level and, 391–394; debt level and growth and, 399–400; debt level and performance and, 398–399; dividend policy and, 396–397; financial policies and, 395–396; implications, 399–400; performance and, 397–398
"Finance in Family Business," 387–401
Financial Times All Share Index (FTSE), 142–143
Finland, estate tax law in, 289–291
Fleenor, P., "The Estate Tax Drag on Family Businesses," 233–252
Foster, J. D., "The Estate Tax Drag on Family Businesses," 233–252
Frederick, T., review by, 329–331
Fruin, W. M., Kikkoman: Company, Clan and Community, reviewed, 87–92

G

Gallo, M. A., "Finance in Family Business," 387–401; "Important Factors in Family Business Internationalization," 45–59
Generation to Generation: Life Cycles of the Family Business, reviewed, 447–449
German family firms, hidden champions of, 439–443
Gersick, K. E., Generation to Generation: Life Cycles of the Family Business, reviewed, 447–449
Goldberg, S. D., "Research Note: Effective Successors in Family-Owned Businesses: Significant Elements," 185–197
Gross Domestic Product (GDP): calculating, 114; estate tax and, 229–230; family-business contribution to, 114–115, 131–132, 199; government spending and, 114
Gross National Product (GNP): estate tax and, 229–230, 256; family business and, 199

H

Hampton, M. M., Generation to Generation: Life Cycles of the Family Business, reviewed, 447–449
Hariharan, G., "Estate Taxes and Asset Accumulation," 253–268
Herbert, J. I., Black Male Entrepreneurs and Adult Development, reviewed, 444–446
Hidden Champions: Lessons from the 500 of the World's Best Unknown Companies, reviewed, 439–443

I

Ibrahim, N. A., "The Status of Planning in Smaller Family-Owned Businesses," 29–43
"Impact on Small Business and Family Business of Changing the Estate Tax, The," 227–232
"Important Factors in Family Business Internationalization," 45–59
Individuation: balance of, 356; business addiction and, 361–362; defined, 355; ego development and, 360–362; entrepreneurial families and, 358–360; family attachment and, 350; family-business conflict and, 359–360; family-business success and, 358–359; self-actualization and, 360; theories of, 355–356
"Influences of Work-Family Conflict on Job Satisfaction, Life Satisfaction and Quitting Intentions Among Business Owners: The Case of Family-Operated Businesses," 61–74

Internationalization: factors in, 46–48; family business (study), 45–52; research on, 45. See also Spanish family businesses, internationalization (study)
Investment decision model, 316
Italian family businesses, 403. See also Boards of directors, Italian family businesses and (study)

J

Job creation, family business, 115–117
Job satisfaction (JS): job performance and, 63-64; life satisfaction and, 64; work-family conflict and (study), 62–72
Jones, R. T., "TQM Adoption Practices in the Family-Owned Business," 5–14

K

Kaplan, T., review by, 209–211
Kaye, K., "When the Family Business Is a Sickness," 347–368
Kikkoman: Company, Clan and Community, reviewed, 87–92
Kikkoman Corporation: family history in, 89–90; firm-as-family approach in, 87–88; globalization of, 88; organizational change phases in, 88–89; role of women in, 90, 92; technical innovation in, 88
King Lear, reviewed, 93–97
Kinship, 16
Kirby, D. A., "Research Note: Succession Management in Family Firms in the North East of England," 75–85
Krueger, N. F., "Chiefdoms and Family Firm Regimes: Variations on the Same Anthropological Theme," 15–27
Kuhlman, B. R., review by, 439-443

L

Lansberg, I., Generation to Generation: Life Cycles of the Family Business, reviewed, 447-449
Latin American family business: at-risk warning signals for, 216–217; boards of, 217; entrepreneurial families in, 217–218; financing in, 217; growth strategies of, 217; succession issues in, 216. See also Spanish family businesses, internationalization (study)
Lee, M.-S., "Research Note: Comparison of Small Family Businesses with Family Participation versus Small Businesses Without Family Participation: An Investigation of Differences in Goals, Attitudes, and Family/Business Conflict," 423–437
Lee, T. J., "Research Note: Succession Management in Family Firms in the North East of England," 75–85
Legitimacy, contender, 20–21
Levin, B. J., review by, 332–337
Life cycle: adult male, 444–445; family business, 447–449; stages of, 444
Life satisfaction (LS): job performance and, 64; job satisfaction and, 64; propensity to leave and, 64; work-family conflict and (study), 62–72
Loughead, T. A., "Effects of Family-Business Membership and Psychological Separation on the Career Development of Late Adolescents," 369–386
"Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index," 125–137
Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index (LUCFFSI): background, 125–129; construction of, 129–134; firms used in, 130; performance, 125–126; as performance benchmark, 127; recommendations, 132–134; sample selection/data, 129–131; technical appendix, 135–136

M

McConaughy, D. L., "Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index," 125–137
Market value-weighted index, 128–129
Marketing to Family Businesses, reviewed, 209–211
Mattson, R., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294
Mendoza, D., "Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index," 125–137
Mentoring, successor, 192–193
Mishra, C., "Loyola University Chicago

Family Firm Stock Index," 125–137
"Myths and Realities: Family Businesses' Contribution to the US Economy," 107–123

N

Non-family businesses (NFBs): ethics in, 157–161; export activity of, 45; family businesses vs., 45–46, 141–144, 153

O

Organizational culture, 159–160
Organizational performance. See Performance
Ostracism, 22
Owners, family-business: goals of, 209; marketing to, 209–211; Personality Assessment Technique and, 209, 211; personality types of, 209–210; product purchasing by, 210–211. See also Chief executive officers (CEOs); Entrepreneurs
Ownership transfer, 285, 288–289, 336. See also Succession planning

P

Paramount, 16
Passing the Torch: Succession, Retirement, and Estate Planning in Family-Owned Businesses, Second Edition, reviewed, 329–331
Perceived product quality, 5
Performance: debt level and, 398–399; decentralization and, 13; family-controlled public firm, 127; family-owned firm, 5–6, 10–12; market share position and, 397–398; planning and, 29–30; TQM adoption and, 12
Personality Assessment Technique (PAT), 209, 211
Personnel strategies: contender elimination strategies, 17–18, 20–22; shared appointments strategies, 17–18, 22–23
Pettker, J. D., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294
Planning: business life cycle and, 182–183; family-business failure and, 176–181; intra-family conflict and, 177–180; operational vs. strategic, 31; performance and, 29–30; smaller family firm (study), 31–42. See also Estate planning; Family-owned business planning (study); Strategic planning; Succession management; Succession planning
Polity, 16, 25
Pont, C. G., "Important Factors in Family Business Internationalization," 45–59
Pre-mortem succession, 22
Price-weighted index, 128
Prince, R. A., "Attributions for Family Business Failure: The Heir's Perspective," 171–184; Marketing to Family Businesses, reviewed, 209–211
Privately held companies: IRS and, 111–112; partnerships, 112; private corporations, 112–113; sole proprietorships, 112
Productivity, work-family conflict and, 426
Propensity to leave (PTL): job satisfaction and, 63; propensity to search and, 64; work-family conflict and (study), 62–72
Propensity to search (PTS), 64
Public companies, 111. See also Family-controlled public firms

R

Regime, 16
Research: anthropological perspective and, 18–19, 25; ethics, 157–160; family business, 199–200; family-firm business/financial strategies, 387; family vs. non-family firms, 141–142; family- vs. non-family business, 423–424; internationalization, 45; lack of quantitative, 108; planning-performance, 29–30; successor, 186; work-family conflict, 63
"Research Note: Comparison of Small Family Businesses with Family Participation versus Small Businesses Without Family Participation: An Investigation of Differences in Goals, Attitudes, and Family/Business Conflict," 423–437

"Research Note: Effective Successors in Family-Owned Businesses: Significant Elements," 185–197
"Research Note: Succession Management in Family Firms in the North East of England," 75–85
Restructuring strategies, 17–18, 23–24
Rider, M., "Do Estate and Gift Taxes Have Economic Consequences?" 321–328
Rogers, E. D., "Chiefdoms and Family Firm Regimes: Variations on the Same Anthropological Theme," 15–27
Rogoff, E. G., "Research Note: Comparison of Small Family Businesses with Family Participation versus Small Businesses Without Family Participation: An Investigation of Differences in Goals, Attitudes, and Family/Business Conflict," 423–437
Rotation, 23
Rue, L. W., "The Status of Planning in Smaller Family-Owned Businesses," 29–43

S

Saposnik, R., "Estate Taxes and the Investment Decision in Closely Held Firms," 315–320
Scottish family enterprises: defined, 145; economic significance of, 148–149; family birthright and, 146; family dynamics in, 147; importance of, 145; motivation of, 146; societal interests of, 149–150; success themes of, 145; visibility of, 146-147; workshops on, 146–147
Shakespeare, W., King Lear, reviewed, 93–97
Shanker, M. C., "Myths and Realities: Family Businesses' Contribution to the US Economy," 107–123
Shared appointment strategies: division of labor, 23; pre-mortem, 22–23; rotation, 23
Shore, T. H., "Ethics in Family and Non-Family Owned Firms: An Exploratory Study," 157–170
Simon, H., Hidden Champions: Lessons from 500 of the World's Best Unknown Companies, reviewed, 439-443
Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs): characteristics of, 141–142; economic impact of, 144; in UK, 140; economic significance of, 144–145, 148–149
Small Business Council of America (SBCA), 227
Smiley, J., A Thousand Acres, reviewed, 93–97
Soldano, P., "Federal Estate and Gift Taxes: Are They Worth the Cost?" 295–302
Southwick, L., Jr., "Estate Taxes and Asset Accumulation," 253–268
Spanish family businesses, internationalization (study): company size, 49; elasticity variables, 47, 53–54; factors, 46–48; industry activity, 49; levels, 51; magnitudes, 49–51; regression analysis, 55–57; results, 51–55; rigidity variables, 47, 52–53; sample characteristics, 48–49. See also Latin American family business
Standard and Poor's 500, 128
Standard and Poor's Food Index, 128
"Status of Planning in Smaller Family-Owned Businesses, The," 29–43
Stock indices: constructions of, 128–129; defined, 127–128; equally weighted index, 129; market value-weighted index, 128–129; price-weighted index, 128; types of, 128; usefulness of, 128; uses of, 128. See also Loyola University Chicago Family Firm Stock Index (LUCFFSI)
Strategic planning: entrepreneurs and, 80; operational planning vs., 31. See also Planning
Substance abuse: alcoholism and, 349–350; family business and, 349. See also Addiction
Success, family business: case classification of, 357–358; defined, 356; differentiation and, 358; individuation and, 358–359; succession and, 355, 363; work-family conflict and, 432–434
Succession: boards of directors and, 404; competitive environment and, 192; Family Firm Institute mission and, 363; Latin American family business and, 216; pre-mortem, 22. success and, 355, 363. See also Ownership transfer; Succession management; Succession planning

Succession management: family firm continuity and, 75; firm survival and, 76; formal vs. informal, 80; human resource development and, 80; rarity of, 76, 80; recommendations for, 75. See also English family firms, succession management in (study); Succession planning; Succession strategies
Succession planning: business continuity and, 172; defined, 172; emotional aspects of, 329; family-business failure and (study), 172–183; interpersonal issues in, 329, 331; leadership vs. ownership succession process, 172; process of, 187–188, 192–193; stages of, 187; technical advisors in, 330; timeliness of, 329. See also Succession management; Succession strategies
Succession strategies: academic researchers and, 25; anthropological approach and, 16, 18–19; asset management, 17–18, 23–24; contender elimination, 17–18, 20–22; dynamic systems and, 17; family-business professionals and, 24; kinship and, 16; legitimacy and, 16; paramount and, 16; personnel, 17–18, 20–23; polity and, 16, 25; regime and, 16; restructuring, 17–18, 23–24; shared appointment, 17–18, 22–23; wealth payment, 18, 24. See also Contender elimination strategies; English family firms, succession management in (study); Succession management; Succession planning
Successor effectiveness (study): competitive environment and, 191–192; data analysis, 190; discussion/conclusions, 193-194; family-business organization and, 190–191; family relationships and, 192; further research on, 195; implications of, 194–195; limitations of, 195; methodology, 188–190; results, 190; succession planning process and, 192–193
Successors: alternatives of, 193; classic model of, 194; combat and, 21–22; competence of, 20; daughters as, 186, 213; division of labor among, 23; educational level of, 193–194; effectiveness measures of, 186; effectiveness of (study), 185–195; entry into business of, 192; experience of, 193; family relationship of, 187; legitimacy of, 20–21; mentoring relationships of, 192–193; ostracism of, 22; research on, 186; rotation among, 23; succession planning knowledge of, 192–193; women, 186, 194–19. See also Contender elimination strategies; Family business failure, heirs' attributions for (study); Successor effectiveness (study)
Swartz, J., "A Comparison of Four Countries' Estate Laws and Their Influence on Family Companies," 285–294
Systems theory, 153–154

T

Tagiuri, R., "Bivalent Attributes of the Family Firm," 199–208
Taiwan, estate tax law in, 292–293
Tashchian, A., "Ethics in Family and Non-Family-Owned Firms: An Exploratory Study," 157–170
Tax Secrets of the Wealthy: A New System to Pass All Your Wealth—Intact and Tax Free—to Your Family, reviewed, 332–337
Taxes. See Estate tax; Transfer taxation
Thousand Acres, A, reviewed, 93–97
Tomaselli, S., "Boards of Directors in Italian Family Business," 403–421
Tompkins, J., "Estate Taxes and the Investment Decision in Closely Held Firms," 315–320
Total Quality Management (TQM): characteristics of groups adopting, 9-10; decentralized decision making and, 5–6, 11, 13; definition of, 7; family-owned business practice of (study), 5–13; firm survival/performance and, 5–6, 10–11; holistic nature of, 6, 11–12; literature review of, 6–7; long-term decision making and, 5–6; practice dimensions of, 7–8; training/formality in, 6, 11–12
"TQM Adoption Practices in the Family-Owned Business," 5–14
Transfer taxation: capital gains tax and, 273–274; capital impact of, 276–278; closely held businesses and, 281–282; cost of saving and, 272–275; economic impact of, 279–282, 296–297; Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981, 236–237; entrepreneurship and, 236, 243–245, 252, 281; equity criterion of, 270;

Transfer taxation (continued)
as federal revenue source, 243; federal system of, 237–238, 269; generation-skipping, 300–301; graduation of, 271; history of, 234–237; horizontal equity of, 270; income impact of, 278–279; neutrality criterion of, 271; Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987, 237; Revenue Act of 1916, 234–235; Revenue Act of 1932, 235; saving vs. consumption and, 271–272; simplicity criterion of, 271; social costs of, 282; Stamp Act of 1797, 234; Tax Reform Act of 1976, 235–236; testator responses to, 275; time-preference rates and, 277; unified system of, 300; vertical equity of, 270
Tutterow, R., "The Effect of Estate Taxes on Family Business: Survey Results," 303–314; "Estate Taxes and the Investment Decision in Closely Held Firms," 315–320

U

UK family firms: characteristics of, 141–142; cross-cultural studies and, 141–142; need for attention to, 140–141; non-family firms vs., 141–145; policy interventions for, 151–153; political environment and, 150–151. See also English family firms, succession management in (study); Scottish family enterprises
Unemployment, failed family businesses and, 181–182
Unhealthy family business: addictive characteristics of, 350-354; codependents in, 352–353; consultant role with, 348; defensiveness in, 351–352; defined, 348; denial and, 351; dependency in, 351; developmental theory and, 363; differentiation and, 350; and, 350; dishonesty in, 353; Family Firm Institute mission and, 363; grandiosity in, 353; individuation/ego development and, 359, 361–363; manipulative disinformation in, 353; passive-aggressive behavior in, 352; paternal approval and, 352; perfectionism in, 352; phases of addiction in, 354; recovery phases of, 365; relationship problems and, 350; secretiveness in, 353; self-centeredness in, 352; substance abuse in, 349; too-cohesive families and, 350; treatment for, 363–367; workaholism and, 350–354. See also Addictive organizations
United Kingdom: economic wealth in, 139–140; SME growth in, 149–140; SME sector in, 140. See also English family firms, succession management in (study); Scottish family enterprises; UK family firms
United States, estate tax law in, 286–289

V

Valle, E. P., A la Sombra del Roble: La Empresa Privada Familiar y su Continuidad (In the Shadow of the Oak: The Privately Held Family Business and Its Continuity), reviewed, 216–218
Vilaseca, A., "Finance in Family Business," 387–401
Vinton, K., review by, 93–97
Vocational identity: children's responsibility for, 383; defined, 371; enmeshed family and, 370–371; parental role in, 383. See also Adolescent career development, family business and (study)

W

Wagner, R., "Federal Transfer Taxation: The Effect on Saving, Capital, Accumulation, and Economic Dissipation," 269–283
Ward, J., Family Business Sourcebook II: A Guide for Families Who Own Businesses and the Professionals Who Serve Them, reviewed, 212–215
Wealth: family firm study and, 19; transfer of, 327
Wealth accumulation model: description of, 245–248; economic progress and, 272; higher labor income and (case example), 251–252; noncorporate businesses and (case example), 250–251; tax scenarios and, 248–252; taxable corporations and (case example), 248–250; writings on, 325–326
Wealth payment strategies, 17–18, 24

Wealth transfer strategies: advisors and, 336–337; categories of, 333; charitable giving and, 332, 335; client objectives and, 334; estate plan strategies and, 333; family gifts and, 335; goal of, 332; junk money and, 334; life insurance and, 333–335; ownership transfer and, 336; pension plans and, 336; wealth creation trust and, 334
"When the Family Business Is a Sickness," 347–368
Whitlock, B., Tax Secrets of the Wealthy: A New System to Pass All Your Wealth—Intact and Tax Free—to Your Family, reviewed, 332–337
Women: as CEOs, 185; gender bias and, 213–214; management role of, 213; as successors, 186, 194–195, 213
Work force: family business employment and, 115; family firm employment of, 182, 199; women in, 213
Work-family conflict (WFC): boards of directors and, 404; business goals and, 425–426; compensation and, 426; daughters and, 426; defined, 62; family business system interaction and, 424; impact of, 432–434; job/life satisfaction and, 61–64; management, 426, 434–435; measures, 431–432; prevalence of, 426; productivity and, 426; propensity to leave and, 62–64; research, 63; sources of, 426; success and, 432–434; workplace effects of, 61. See also Family business goals/attitudes, work-family conflict and (study); Work-family conflict, business owners and (study)
Work-family conflict, business owners and (study): future research and, 72–73; implications, 71–72; job satisfaction and, 70; life satisfaction and, 71; methods/measures, 66; propensity to leave and, 71; propensity to search and, 71; results, 66–70; sample, 65–66